

Dear Vendor:

The Granville Museum, Granville, TN, will sponsor the 19th Annual Heritage Day on May 27, 2017. The event has grown into one of Middle Tennessee's largest community celebrations with over 9,000 people in attendance last year. The event is known for its large antique car show, antique tractor show, civil war living history demonstration, Uncle Jimmy Thompson Bluegrass Festival, entertainment of all types, children rides, crafts, craftsmen, great food, Sutton Ole Time Music Hour, parade, square dancing and much more.

The Sutton Homestead continues to greatly enhance Heritage Day, Fall Celebration and our other events. The Homestead will feature the 1880 home, Grist Mill Shop, Blacksmith Shop, Weave Shop, 1950's Gulf Garage and Antique Car Museum, 1820 Pioneer Homestead, Storytelling Shed, Entertainment Stage, Craftsmen and much more.

On April 8th we will have the Grand Opening celebration of the "1940's: A Decade of Change" with Antique Car Show up to 1950, USO Shows and World War II Re-enactments. There will also be a Genealogy Festival, Upper Cumberland Wine Festival and the 9th Anniversary Celebration of Sutton General Store.

We will also have our 3rd Cornbread & Moonshine Bash Festival on May 6th with booth space available.

We are requesting that you also sign up for booths at our "Fall Celebration" on October 7th which will be even larger this year. The event will also feature Jazz on the Cumberland, Quilt, Storytelling, Blacksmith Festival and Pioneer Day at Homestead. This event continues to grow with attendance last year of 4,000.

Please sign up on attached sheet and return by March 15th as we have limited space. If you sign up for more than one event, you will receive a special price. After March 15th the price is $10.00 more for booths for each event

Sincerely yours,
